

1 INTERNSHIP IN ARCHITECTURE PROGRAM (IAP), 4TH EDITION

Effective Date: July 1, 2020 (revised July 1, 2022)

2 TRANSITION PLAN

Implementation of the new IAP and AANB Appendix B

July 1, 2020 (updated July 1, 2022)

Transition Details

- a) Interns who have not submitted hours for approval by July 1, 2020 will automatically transition to the new IAP.
- b) Interns who have submitted hours which have been approved by the AANB have the option to enter the new IAP at any time between July 1, 2020 and July 1, 2022.
- c) Interns who are enrolled in the current IAP program will have until June 30, 2022 to complete all their IAP requirements at which time they will automatically transition into the new IAP

3 ROLE OF ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS FOR STUDENT EXPERIENCE

On the Declaration Form provided with the AANB Student application form, Students must have confirmation from their university that they:

- a. Are enrolled and attending an accredited program, and;
- b. Completing the final two years of a CACB accredited Masters' Program.

Any experience gained prior to entering the final two years of a CACB accredited Masters' Program or while on leave from the Program, will not be eligible for consideration

The completed Declaration Form must be submitted with the students first employment block.

4 STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

- a) Students must enroll/register in the jurisdiction in which they intend to undertake their internship.
- b) Students must ensure that their CERB is complete and submitted at the end of every employment block.

5 CANADIAN EXPERIENCE RECORD BOOK (CERB)

- a) Students and Interns must use the CERB form provided by the AANB. No other modified version will be accepted.
- b) Interns must submit their CERB as outlined in the IAP manual.

6 INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Recognition of any experience gained outside of Canada is addressed in AANB Appendix B.